Coronado Foundation For The Future 7501 E Virgina Ave Scottsdale, AZ 85257

Subject: Preparation of 2024 Tax Returns

Coronado Foundation For The Future:

Thank you for choosing Miller Wolman CPAs PLLC to assist with the 2024 taxes for Coronado Foundation For The Future. This letter confirms the terms of the engagement and outlines the nature and extent of the services we will provide.

We will prepare the 2024 federal and state income tax returns for Coronado Foundation For The Future. We will depend on management to provide the information we need to prepare complete and accurate returns. We may ask management to clarify some items but will not audit or otherwise verify the data submitted.

We are not being engaged to determine your filing obligation in all state, local and foreign jurisdictions. If you believe you may need to file in additional jurisdictions, please let us know and we can discuss filing requirements or completion of a Nexus study under the terms of a separate engagement.

We will perform accounting services only as needed to prepare the tax returns. Our work will not include procedures to find defalcations or other irregularities. Accordingly, our engagement should not be relied upon to disclose errors, fraud, or other illegal acts, though it may be necessary for management to clarify some of the information submitted. We will inform management of any material errors, fraud, or other illegal acts we discover.

The law imposes penalties when taxpayers underestimate their tax liability. Call us if there are any concerns about such penalties.

Should we encounter instances of unclear tax law, or of potential conflicts in the interpretation of the law, we will outline the reasonable courses of action and the risks and consequences of each. We will ultimately adopt, on the behalf of Coronado Foundation For The Future, the alternative selected by management.

We will use our judgment in resolving questions where the tax law is unclear, or where there may be conflicts between the taxing authorities' interpretations of the law and other supportable positions. We will follow whatever position you request, so long as it is consistent with the Internal Revenue Code, Regulations and interpretations that have been promulgated. If the taxing authorities later contest the position taken, there may be an assessment of additional tax, interest, and penalties. We assume no liability for any such additional penalties or assessments.

We will not perform management functions or make management decisions on your behalf. However, we will provide advice, research materials and recommendations to assist management in performing its functions and making decisions. We reserve the right, based on our sole professional judgment, to refuse to do any procedure or take any action that could be construed as making management decisions or performing management functions.

Management agrees to perform the following functions in connection with (firm name)provision of tax services:

- Make all management decisions and perform all management functions;
- Designate an individual who possesses suitable skill, knowledge, and/or experience to oversee the tax services and evaluate the adequacy and results of the services;
- Accept responsibility for the results of the tax services; and
- Establish and maintain internal controls over the tax return preparation process

We will perform your tax services in accordance with applicable professional standards, including the Statements on Standards for Tax Services issued by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants.

Management is responsible for the proper recording of transactions in the books of accounts, for the safeguarding of assets, and for the substantial accuracy of the financial records. Our work in connection with the preparation of your income tax returns does not include any procedures designed to discover defalcations or other irregularities, should any exist. We are not responsible for the disallowance of doubtful deductions, inadequately supported documentation or for the resulting taxes, penalties and interest. You have the final responsibility for the income tax returns and, therefore, you should review them carefully before you sign and file them.

Our engagement is not intended, nor can it be relied upon to determine if your organization has Unrelated Business Taxable Income. (UBTI) Our firm is available under the terms of a separately agreed upon engagement letter to determine if UBTI exists in your organization. It is further understood, that if you do not engage our firm to conduct such a study and UBTI is subsequently determined by any taxing authority, you will hold our firm harmless from any resulting damage(s).

Our minimum fees for these services will be at our standard hourly billing rates for the time spent plus out-of-pocket expenses, including computer-processing charges. Our fees will be adjusted accordingly based on the degree of responsibility assumed, complexity of the engagement, special skills required to resolve issues and the adequacy and timeliness of the information you provide. Periodically during the engagement, we will issue progress invoices which are payable upon presentation. Billings become delinquent if not paid within 30 days of the invoice date. If billings are past due in excess of 45 days, we will stop all work until your account is brought current or withdraw from the engagement. You acknowledge and agree that we are not required to continue work in the event of your failure to pay on a timely basis for services rendered as required by this engagement letter. You further acknowledge and agree that in the event we stop work or withdraw from this engagement as a result of your failure to pay on a timely basis for services rendered as required by this engagement letter, we shall not be liable to you for any damages that occur as a result of our ceasing to render services. A delinquency charge of 1% per month may be assessed on any unpaid balance after deduction of current payments, credits and allowances made within 30 days of date of billing.

We reserve the right to suspend our services or to withdraw from this engagement in the event that any of our invoices are deemed delinquent (if not paid within thirty days of the invoice date) or for any other reason, such as but not limited to, unethical business practices, conflicts of interest, incomplete data, misleading information or uncooperativeness on the part of management in performing our engagement. In the event, that any collection action is required to collect unpaid balances due us, you agree to reimburse us for our costs of collection, including attorneys' fees. If we elect to terminate our services for nonpayment, or for any other reason provided for in this letter, our engagement will be deemed to have been completed upon written notification of termination, even if we have not completed our report. You will be obligated to compensate us for all time expended, and to reimburse us for all of our out-of-pocket costs, through the date of termination.

In connection with this engagement, we may communicate with you or others via email transmission. As emails can be intercepted and read, disclosed, or otherwise used or communicated by an unintended third party, or may not be delivered to each of the parties to whom they are directed and only to such parties, we cannot guarantee or warrant that emails from us will be properly delivered and read only by the addressee. Therefore, we specifically disclaim and waive any liability or responsibility whatsoever for the interception or unintentional disclosure of emails transmitted by us in connection with the performance of this engagement. In that regard, you agree that we shall have no liability for any loss or damage to any person or entity resulting from the use of email transmissions, including any consequential, incidental, direct, indirect, or special damages, such as loss of revenues or anticipated profits, or disclosure or communication of confidential or proprietary information.

If a dispute arises among the parties hereto, the parties agree first to try in good faith to settle the dispute by mediation administered by the American Arbitration Association under its Rules for Professional Accounting and Related Services Disputes before resorting to litigation. All parties shall share the costs of any mediation proceeding equally. Client and (firm name) ("accounting firm") both agree that any dispute over fees charged by the accounting firm to the client will be submitted for resolution by arbitration in accordance with the Rules for Professional Accounting and Related Services Disputes of the American Arbitration Association. Such arbitration shall be binding and final. IN AGREEING TO ARBITRATION, WE BOTH ACKNOWLEDGE THAT, IN THE EVENT OF A DISPUTE OVER FEES CHARGED BY THE ACCOUNTING FIRM, EACH OF US IS GIVING UP THE RIGHT TO HAVE THE DISPUTE DECIDED IN A COURT OF LAW BEFORE A JUDGE OR JURY AND INSTEAD, WE ARE ACCEPTING THE USE OF ARBITRATION FOR RESOLUTION.

In recognition of the relative risks and benefits of this agreement to both the client and the accounting firm, the client and the accounting firm hereby mutually agree on the fair allocation of risk between them. As such, the client agrees, to the fullest extent permitted by law, to limit the liability of the accounting firm to the client for any and all claims, losses, costs, and damages of any nature whatsoever, so that the total aggregate liability of the accounting firm to the client shall not exceed the aggregate fees paid or owing to the accounting firm under this agreement. The client and the accounting firm intend and agree that this limitation apply to any and all liability or cause of action against the accounting firm, however alleged or arising, unless otherwise prohibited by law. However, our liability relating to the performance of the services rendered under this letter is limited solely to direct damage sustained by you. In no event shall we be liable for the consequential, special, incidental, or punitive loss, damage or expense caused to you or to any third party (including without limitation, lost profits, opportunity costs, etc.). The provision set forth in this paragraph shall survive the completion of the engagement.

Your returns are subject to examination by the taxing authorities. In the event of an audit, you may be requested to produce documents, records or other evidence to substantiate the items of income and deduction shown on the tax return. Any proposed adjustments by the examining agent are subject to certain rights of appeal. If an examination is made, we will represent you if you so desire. Such additional services are not included in our fee for preparation of your returns.

The Internal Revenue Service Restructuring and Reform Act of 1998 provides a limited privilege of confidentiality to certain communications between CPAs and their clients. Because your federal tax return is intended to be disclosed to revenue officials, and is not intended to be confidential, the confidentiality privilege does not extend to the tax return, nor to the basis for the numbers and calculations included in the return.

However, communications involving tax advice between you and our firm may be privileged and not subject to disclosure to the Internal Revenue Service. By disclosing the contents of the communications to anyone, or by turning over information about those communications to the taxing authorities, you may be waiving this privilege. In addition, the confidentiality privilege can be inadvertently waived if the contents of any privileged communication are discussed with a third party, such as a lending institution, a friend, or a business associate.

It is not the policy of this firm to voluntarily disclose to third parties any non-public information obtained from or about your company during or as a result of this engagement absent your express consent to do so. Indeed, as professionals, we are obligated to preserve the confidential nature of such information in our possession. However, such information may not be protected from disclosure by an absolute privilege, and therefore, we may be compelled by law or legal process, with or without your consent, to produce documents or testify about facts and circumstances that have come into our possession, or become known to us, during or as a result of this engagement. You should consult with legal counsel to obtain a thorough understanding of the extent and limitations of the confidentiality of information in our possession.

As an exempt organization, you need to be especially careful about privileged communications. If a communication is made in the presence of an employee who is not authorized to act or speak for the organization in relation to the communication's subject matter, then the communication will be deemed to be made in the presence of a third party and any privilege will be waived.

Although we may verbally discuss tax planning issues with you from time to time, such discussions will not constitute advice upon which we intend for you to rely for any purpose. Rather, any advice upon which we intend for you to rely, and upon which you will rely, will be embodied in a written report or correspondence from us to you, and any such writing will supersede any prior oral representations between the parties on the issue.

During the preparation of your income tax returns, we may provide you with written communication regarding certain tax matters. To ensure compliance with IRS Circular 230 disclosure requirements, we inform you that any tax advice contained in such communications (including any attachments) is not intended or written to be used, and cannot be used, by you for the purpose of avoiding penalties under the Internal Revenue Code or any applicable state or local tax law provisions. Such written communications are intended solely for your use and no one else should rely on the tax advice that may be provided therein.

There may be subsequent changes in federal and state tax laws due to legislative actions, tax court rulings, administrative interpretation, etc. The changes occasionally are given retroactive effect. Retroactive changes could result in improperly filed returns and/or negate planning efforts. In the event amended returns are required, they would be the subjects of a separate engagement. You, as the taxpayer, have the final responsibility to determine how to proceed with such matters and to seek consultation to review your position.

Recent laws have greatly expanded the Internal Revenue Services' assessment of penalties and made the collection of those penalties a major source of revenue for the government. And in some states, a knowing failure to file a return or supply required information, or falsifying or concealing material information may be considered a felony. We urge you to consult an experienced tax attorney for additional guidance on these points.

The law provides for a penalty to be imposed where a taxpayer makes a substantial understatement of his or her tax liability. You agree to advise us if you wish disclosure to be made in your return or if you wish for us to identify or perform further research with respect to any material tax issues for the purpose of ascertaining whether, in our opinion, there is "substantial authority" for the position proposed to be taken on such issues in your return.

In 2008, Congress imposed more stringent standards on tax preparers, requiring that each return position have substantial authority, unless proper disclosure is made. By providing our firm with the information necessary to prepare your tax return(s), you are accepting the following terms and conditions: 1) We will be preparing all tax returns in compliance with the new standards for tax professionals and all applicable interim guidance as promulgated by the IRS, 2) our firm's compliance with the standards that apply to us as return preparers may lead to conflicts between us concerning appropriate disclosures, and 3) this potential for conflict has been disclosed to you. We will inform you if we identify a situation that would create a potential for a conflict of interest so that we can jointly attempt to resolve the potential conflict. Advising you of these standards, providing you with the appropriate disclosure, whether or not you choose to make the disclosure and documenting that we have done so may be considered a valid alternative to disclosing the tax position on your return. However, we reserve the right to require disclosures that, in our professional judgment, would be necessary to comply with all applicable standards. If we are unable to resolve our differences over the standards, you may choose to retain the services of another professional.

As each tax situation is unique, compliance with US Treasury Regulations may require additional time researching tax issues and preparing your tax returns. Therefore, additional fees may be billed.

Also, if we advise you to disclose a tax position that, in our professional judgment, will not meet the tax professional standard and you decline to disclose the position, we reserve the right to stop work. We shall not be liable to you for any damages that occur as a result of ceasing to render services, and you reserve the right to terminate the engagement and have someone else prepare your returns.

Most states have statutes that require legal entities such as yours to keep up-to-date minute books that document such items as major asset purchases, loans, officer salaries, bonuses and other important matters affecting the organization.

If you do not currently maintain an up-to-date minute book, you are advised to contact an attorney to determine the documentation required to comply with state law.

Work papers and other written or digitally created materials, files, or analyses (collectively, "files") prepared during the course of our engagement are the sole and exclusive property of the accounting firm and constitute confidential and proprietary information of the accounting firm. It is our policy not to grant access to our files. If all or any portion of our files are subpoenaed, we will require assistance from your legal counsel to assist us in obtaining a protective order to prevent public disclosure of our files. If the accounting firm, its partners, managers, agents, or employees are requested, pursuant to subpoena, court order, regulatory agency, governmental agency, or other legal process, to appear in person or to produce or provide access to its files or any other materials relating to this engagement in judicial or administrative proceedings to which the accounting firm is not a party, you agree to reimburse the accounting firm at standard billing rates for its professional time and expenses, including reasonable attorney's fees, incurred in responding to such requests. This provision shall survive the termination of your engagement with the accounting firm.

It is our policy to keep records related to this engagement for seven years. However, we do not keep any original client records, so we will return those to you at the completion of the services rendered under this engagement. When records are returned to you, it is your responsibility to retain and protect your records for possible future use, including potential examination by any government or regulatory agencies. By signing this engagement letter, you acknowledge and agree that upon the expiration of the seven-year period, we are free to destroy our records related to this engagement.

You agree that you will not use our firm's name or the name of an employee of the firm in a communication containing a financial presentation without the written permission of our firm. If you do use our firm name or the name of an employee of the firm in a communication containing a financial presentation, you agree to include our report or a disclaimer on the financial presentations that we so specify. Further, you agree to provide us with printers' proofs or masters of any document that contains our firm name or the name of an employee of the firm and a financial presentation for our review and approval before printing of the document. You also agree to provide us with a copy of the final reproduced material that contains both our firm's name or the name of an employee of the firm and financial presentation(s) for our approval before it is distributed.

In connection with this engagement, we may communicate with you or others via email transmission, and by signing this letter, you authorize us to do so. As emails can be intercepted and read, disclosed, or otherwise used or communicated by an unintended third party, or may not be delivered to each of the parties to whom they are directed and only to such parties, we cannot guarantee or warrant that emails from us will be properly delivered and read only by the addressee. Therefore, we specifically disclaim and waive any liability or responsibility whatsoever for interception or unintentional disclosure of emails transmitted by us in connection with the performance of this engagement. In that regard, you agree that we shall have no liability for any loss or damage to any person or entity resulting from the use of email transmissions, including any consequential, incidental, direct, indirect, or special damages, such as loss of revenues or anticipated profits, or disclosure or communication of confidential or proprietary information.

In the event that we are or may be obligated to pay any cost, settlement, judgment, fine, penalty, or similar award or sanction as a result of a claim, investigation, or other proceeding instituted by any third party, then to the extent that such obligation is or may be a direct or indirect result of your intentional or knowing misrepresentation or provision to us of inaccurate or incomplete information in connection with this engagement, and not any failure on our part to comply with professional standards, you agree to indemnify us, defend us, and hold us harmless as against such obligations.

Unless authorized by law, we cannot use, without your consent, your tax return information for purposes other than the preparation and filing of your tax return. You are not required to give your consent to the use of your tax return information. If we condition our service on your consent, your consent will not be valid. Your consent is valid for the amount of time that you specify. If you do not specify the duration of your consent, your consent is valid for one year.

Notwithstanding anything contained herein both the accounting firm and client agree that, regardless of where the client is domiciled and regardless of where this agreement is physically signed, this agreement shall have been deemed to have been entered into in the State of Arizona. Arizona shall be the exclusive jurisdiction for resolving disputes related to this agreement. This agreement shall be interpreted and governed in accordance with the Laws of Arizona.

Any litigation arising out of this engagement, except actions by us to enforce payment of our professional invoices, must be asserted within one year from the date any such cause of action accrues, or within three years from the completion of the engagement, whichever is earlier, notwithstanding any statutory provision to the contrary.

This engagement letter is contractual in nature and includes all of the relevant terms that will govern the engagement for which it has been prepared. The terms of this letter supersede any prior oral or written representations or commitments by or between the parties. Any material changes or additions to the terms set forth in this letter will only become effective if evidenced by a written amendment to this letter, signed by all of the parties. If you would like us to provide you with any other services not specifically outlined in this engagement letter, you must make that request of us in writing. If we agree to provide the requested additional services, we will create a separate engagement letter specifically addressing the same, and that engagement letter, upon your signature, will govern our provision of those additional services.

There are many reporting requirements with respect to assets held in foreign countries or having signature authority over foreign accounts, whether or not you have any ownership in such accounts. We will need to document for our files affirmative representations regarding any foreign holdings or signature authority, of lack thereof. There are significant penalties that could be imposed by failing to properly report such assets or authority.

We appreciate the opportunity to be of service to you and believe this letter accurately summarizes the significant terms of our engagement. We will be pleased to discuss this letter with you at any time.

Whether you return a signed copy of this engagement letter to us or not, a discussion, meeting or the receipt of any information from us will be your confirmation of your agreement to the terms of this letter, including your affirmative representation that you have substantiation to support all deductions claimed and that you have provided us with all information necessary to prepare a complete and accurate return.

If management has not selected to e-file the returns with our office, management will be solely responsible to file the returns with the appropriate taxing authorities. The tax matters representative should review all tax-return documents carefully before signing them. Our engagement to prepare the 2024 tax returns will conclude with the delivery of the completed returns to management, or with e-filed returns, with the tax matters representative's signature and our subsequent submittal of the tax return.

To affirm that this letter correctly summarizes the arrangements for this work, sign the enclosed copy of this letter in the space indicated and return it to us.
